

An Introduction to Water Quality Trading

Curious about how water quality trading could help your watershed? Not sure how trading improves water quality? Interested in how to design a credible trading program? Attend EPA's FREE one day training course and learn all about water quality trading!

What's "water quality trading"?

Topics include:

- ◆ Water Quality Trading Basics
- ◆ How Trading Fits into the CWA
- ◆ Types of Trading Programs
- ◆ Assessing Feasibility of Creating a Trading Program: Environmental Analysis
- ◆ Assessing Feasibility of Creating a Trading Program: Financial Attractiveness Analysis
- ◆ Designing a Credible Trading Program

Date: Tues., Oct. 23, 2007
Time: 9:00 am—5:00 pm
(Registration begins at 8:30 am)
Location: US EPA Region 7
Room 2240
901 N. 5th Street
Kansas City, KS
66101
Cost: FREE!
Register SOON!
Space is limited!

For more information contact: Ginny Kibler
(kibler.virginia@epa.gov)

To register send your name, phone number, email address, and organization to: Kavya Kasturi (kasturi.kavya@epa.gov)

